THAN ANY TWO OTHER NEWSPAPERS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1888.

Nominated By Orator Dougherty.

A Whirlwind of Tumultuous Applause.

The Red Bandannas Are Waving Everywhere.

They Foretell the Nomination for Second Place

Mrs. Cleveland the Only Better Democrat

ANY SPECIAL WIRE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

No.—The crowd is gathering slowly. A arge picture of Thurman, hung over the Chairman's platform last night, is attracting nuch attention. The Convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock.

to 9 o'clock this morning. It is now in ses-

9.50.—It is announced in a morning paper

The Republican says there will be an ematic indorsement of the President's mesage and the Mills bill. The committee has reported to conclusion as yet; still in session.

that everything in the platform was agreed on except the preamble. Mr. Watterson wishes to indorse the President's Message and Mr. Gorman the platform of 1884. Mr. Watterson says he thinks the platform will be ready this afternoon, but expects a fight

10 20. -Bands now playing and delegates arriving. 10.28.—Convention called to order.

livered the invocation. 10.30.—The silver gavel from Colorado was placed in custody of the National Commit-

10.35.-Mallory, of Florida, presented a resolution indorsing the President's tariff message. It was received with cheers and applance and referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

11.58.—Daniel Dougherty, of New York, ominating Cleveland for re-election. reported in favor of the Church faction in 11.58. - Dougherty electrified the conven Dakota—the only contest made. tion by saying to the delegates that they were here to ratify the nomination the people had

10.37.—Two delegates from Alaska admitted to seats in the convention. already made. 10, 38. - Congressman Collins, of Massachu-planss. spectively. (Loud applause.) 10.50.—The report of the Committee on quoted by Dougherty, was loudly cheered. Permanent Organization was adopted. It makes the rules of the last convention govern, modified to prevent any State from changing its vote until the roll-call is fin-

10.65-Messrs. Barnum, of Connecticut; souri, made a committee to escort Gen. Col-

10.56.—The Massachusetts delegates greeted bheers. He began his speech in a rather weak voice, and there were cries of "Louder" from the rear.

11.05.—Gen. Collins's allusion to President Cleveland cheered to the echo. 11.17 A. M.-Chairman Collins has just finished speaking. (For Chairman Collins's Speech see Fourth

11.26. - Chairman Gollins-said he had bee amid waving of hats. The excitement extended to the galleries. lins to the chair. 10.56.—Chairman Collins being escorted to Picture of Cleveland in White House uncovthe stand. Delegates cheering and waving ered on east wall. bats and canes. Chairman Collins with three times three excitement increases.

12.14. Hats thrown into the air and the 12.15. -Cheering continues, Bandannas waving all over the hall. Delegates standing on the seats. 12.17.—Chairman rapping for order, Cheer-

12.18.—The delegates have picked up State banners and are waving them in the air.

Cheering continues.

THE DEMOCRATIC BANNERS Committee that it would not be able to re- and still cheering and waving hate and unbrellas. 11.30.—Shewalter, of Missouri, presented a the war taxes shall cease, and denouncing ner. Cheering continues.

tion asking that a representative be allowed ing the eagles from the gallery decorations On motion of O'Donohue, of New York, the Mrs. Merriweather, of St. Louis, will dethirty minutes.

12.31.—Some one placed a bandanna on vania, all platform resolutions will be ordered | Cleveland's bust. It aroused great enthusiasm but was immediately removed by those on > dience still cheering. 12.83.—Congressman McKenzie, of Kentucky, is now seconding Cleveland's nomination of Mrs. Cleveland. 12.36.-McKenzie sald Mrs. Cleveland is the only better Democrat than Mr. Cleveland in the country. (Laughter and applause.) 12.38. - McKenzie addresses the convention 12.39. - McKenzie said: "Kentucky likes Cleveland for his splendid racing qualities,14. Great laughter and applause. 12.89-The allusion to Blaine as the "Florwith laughter and applause. 12.45.-McKengie moves that Cleveland's onding the nomination of Cleveland. 12.56.—Twiggs has finished seconding the

1 P. M.-Cries of "Question" and great confusion.

STORY OF THE DAY AT ST. LOUIS. Fans and Red Bandannas.

St. Louis, June 6.-After a sweltering night of discomfort and unrest, the members of the National Convention are rising to resume their labors. The day is hot at its dawn and promises to develop into a scorcher of the first magnitude. Men are eating as light breakfasts as the weather will give them appetite for to prop them against the fierce at and the drudging labor of existence.

Many a rocky face, pale from lassitude and bearing all the signs of an appetite gone, legs weak and head throbbing, appears in the 12.13.—Band playing "Hail to the Chief." corridors of the hotels. Men are hurrying into the streets to let the little morning breeze which flutters among the city's flags and streamers fan their brows. Fans are in every hand. They are of all shapes, sizes and colors, and their motion shows more of life and energy than any other thing visible this morning.

life and energy than any other thing visible this morning.

After the parade last night there was great pleasure seeking. Carriages rolled here and there laden with delegates; the great beer gardens of the city were crowded and the frothy fluid consumed in enormous quantities. Shooting-galleries, health lifts—every means of dropping spare coins had a ceaseless stream of patrons.

At Tom Allen's, where muscular young men pounded each other's heads with soft gloves, there was a sprinkling of delegates, and the ex-prize-fighter was happy to show gentlemen visitors from the whole country over the beauties of the manly art.

FOR 1888.

All night long the madeap partisans of Gov, Gray kept up their noisy advocacy of his claims. From hotel to hotel they marched, waving streamers of drab cambric and matching their lung power against that of the Thurman adherents, who had reared the old red bandanns at every corner, and were whooping it higher and higher as the night wore on.

wore on.

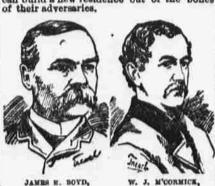

The early morning found many a man who had not been able to get a bed or not able to take it if he had it, alumbering sweetly in the big chairs before the hotel, a Thurman bandanna swathed about his hat or the emblem of Gray dangling from the walking-stick, which no longer added to his dignity, and at last the day has come and the delegates are making ready to get them to Convention Hall,

Tariff is the theme on every tongue. Yesterday the theme on every tongue was the Vice-Presidential question. The ban-danna episode at the opening of the conven-tion yesterday made that question a foregone conclusion, and this morning every one is conclusion, and this morning every one is talking about the tariff.

The delight of Tammany Hall over the way things are going had a temporary interruption by the sorry news that the home of the organization in New Yosk was barning. This information was first received in a telegram sent to Joseph J. O'Donohue, and for an hour there was consternation among the braves. "But let it go," they cried, "we'll rebuild it fifteen stories higher." And people who are posted on the way the convention is going say laughingly that Tammany can build a new residence out of the bones of their adversaries.

Nebraska.

Montana.

The question of the Vice-Presidential nomination would seem to be settled, but there are knowing tips that neither Thurman or Gray will get the nomination—that it will fall to Stevenson after all.

The Tammany men said last might that they hoped to start for home to-night, and the cut and dried condition of business seemed to warrant their determination. But the tariff booms and another day's lator becomes a good-sized probability.

From breakfast time this morning the men of all stripes of opinion on the tariff fairly swarmed the Southern Hotel, waiting to hear something appropos of the resolutions.

At 10 o'clock the hotel corridors were deserted. The streets were again a pageant, and everybody was moving towards Conven-

F. O. PRINCE,

Tim Campbell, of New York, was on hi feet, and a murmur of recognition and greets ing went about the hall. He offered a long-resolution about the Monroe doctrine, which was referred to the Committee on Platform, as was also a resolution indorsing President Cleveland's Administration.

John C. Webb, of Alabama, presented the report of the Committee on Credentials, which was read by the Chair. The only contest was that in Dakota.

The Committee had decided to recognize the claim of the faction beaded by Wm. Steele and H. L. McGuire. The report said in closing, that the Committee understood there was a delegation from Alaska, but had no knowledge of it.

Immediately after the reading of this Mr. Webb said: "Mr. Chairman, the names of the Secretary." Tim Campbell, of New York, was on hi Arassa. Missouri.

The names were read, and the Chair with a smile turned to Webb, of Alabama, and said in a parliamentary voice: "Would it not be well, Mr. Webb, to cancel that portion of the report at which the committe says it has no knowledde of the Alaska delegation?"

The Convention laughed and cried "It would!" "It would!" and Webb, of Alabama, echoed, "It would!"

Mr. Cassidy, of Pennsylvania, was greeted with cheers as he rose to offer the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

THE SILVER-TONGUED DOUGHERTY.

He Obeyed the Command of the People in Nominating Grover Cleveland.

CONVENTION HALL, St. Louis, June 6 .-There were cheers upon cheers for the silver-tongued orator of Tammany Hall, and when they ceased, Mr. Daniel Dougherty when they ceased, Mr. Daniel Dougherty nominated Grover Cleveland for President in the following speech:

I greet you, my countrymen, with fraternal regard. In your presence I bow to the majeav of the people. The sight itself is inspiring, the thought stabiline. You come from every State and Territary, from every nook and corner of our occan-bound, continent-covering country. You are about to discharge a more than imperial duty with simple ceremonials. You, as the representatives of the people, are to choose a magistrate with power mightier than a monarch, yet checked and controlled by the supreme law of a written Constitution.

power mightler than a monarch, yet checked and controlled by the supreme law of a written Constitution.

Thus impressed I ascend the rostrum to name the aext President of the United States. New York presents him to the convention and pledges her electoral vote. Delegations from thirty-eight States and all the Territories are here assembled without caucus or consultation, ready simultaneously to take up the cry and make the vote unanimous. We are here not to choose a candidate, but to name one; the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He is the man for the people have already chosen. He has stood in the gaze of the world, discharging the most exalted duties ever confided to man, and the manner of porforming which today determines that, not of his own choice, but by the mandate of his countrymen, with the sanction of heaven he shall fill the Presidency for four years more. He has met and mastered every question as if from youth trained to statesmanship.

The promises of his letter of noceptance and in angural address have been fulfilled. His fidelity in the past imprires faith in the feture. He is not a hope, he is a realization. Scorming subterfages, disdaining re-election by concealing convictions, mindful of his oath of office to defend the Constitution, he courageously declares to Congress, dropping minor matters, that the supreme issue is reform, revision, reduction of national taxation; that the Treasury of the United States, giutted with unneeded gold, oppresses industry, embarrasses business, endangers shandal tranquillity and produces extravagance, centralization and corruption; that high taxation, vital for the expenditures of an unparalleled war, is robery in years of prosperous peace; that the millious that pour int that high taxation, vital for the expenditures of an unparalleled war, is robbery in years of prosperous peace; that the millious that pour into the Treasury come from the hard-earned savings of the American people; that in violation of the equality of rights the present tariff has created a privileged class, who, chaping legislation for their personal gain, levy by law contributions upon the necessaries of life from every man, woman and child in the tand; that to lower the tariff is not free trade—it to be the control of the composition of the composition of the control of the contro t is to reduce the unjust profits of monopolists and boss manufacturers and allow consumers to retain man who asserts that to lower the tariff The man who asserts that to lower the tariff means free trade insults intelligence. We brain him as a faisiner. It is furthest from our thought to imperil capital or disture enterprises. The aim is to uphold wages and protect the rigilist of all.

This Administration has rescued the public domain from would-be barons and commorant corporations faithless to obligations, and reserved it for free homes for this and coming generations. There are no lobs under this Administration. Public office is a public trust; integrity stands guard at every post of our vast empire.

While the President has been the medium through which has flowed the undying graditude of the Republic for her solders, he has not besitated to withhold approval from special legislation if strictest inquiry revealed a want of perfect justice. Above all, strife, as never before, is at an end and 60,00,000 of freemen in the ties of brotherhood are prosperous and happy.

and 60,000,000 of freemen in the ties of brotherhood are prosperous and happy.

These are the elements of this Administration.
Under the same illustrious leader, we are ready to meet our political opponents in high and honorable debate and stake our triumph on the intelligence, virtue and patriotism of the people, adhering to the Constitution, its every line and letter, ever remembering that "powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohib.

tion Hall, where, hot and breathless, the convention was gathering.

The bandanna episode of yesterday was repeated, and all banner-staffs of the delegations decorated according to their Vice-Presidential preferences.

At 10.35 Chairman White rapped on the desk with the silver gavel, Colorado's gift, and called the convention to order.

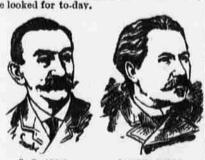

Rev. J. B. Green, of Missouri offered prayer. The vast convention rose to its feet in reverence and irreverence, and near-sighted people in remote parts of the hall yelled "Down in front!"

After prayer a resolution was adopted thanking Colorado for the gift of its gavel, and resolving that the trinket be placed in the keeping of the National Committee to be used in future conventions.

The Chairman announced that credentials had been received from Alaska. They were offered to the Committee on Credentials. to have had a tilt and their relations are now

Those of the sub-committee who favor the indorsement of the President's message are Messrs. Watterson, of Kentucky; Yaple, of Michigan ; Turpie, of Indiana ; Abbett, of New Jersey ; Hettman, of Oregon; Sims, of Mississippi, and Patterson, of Colorado. Those who want the plank to simply contain the sentiments of 1884 are Gorman, of Maryland; Cooper of New York; Burr, of Connecticut, and Dymond, of Louisiana.

upon to settle the question lively times may be looked for to-day.

A long and heated discussion is expected in whatever is presented in the way of a tariff plank.
The tariff reformers insist on a square, tariff plank.

The tariff reformers insist on a square, downright declaration without cavil or equivocation. The tariff element is fighting for a reassertion of the tariff plank of 1884, but with a maudlin indorsement of the President's message.

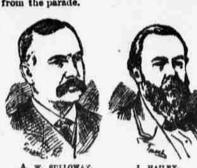

The plan of the high tariff people is to construe the President's message on the lines of the platform of 1884. The reformers will take nothing less than a square inforsement of the President's message, and with no reference to the platform of 1884.

The reformers feel that under the stimulus of the President's message the party has progressed and the country has progressed with it. The reformers also feel that they have an overwhelming majority of the convention, and that a weakening of any kind on terms of any kind will only encourage the war-tariff people to persist in their efforts to dominate and control the party.

It was confidently expected last night that it would not take the Tariff Committee a great while to formulate the language of that portion of the platform, if, indeed, it was not already prepared. It was understood by the initiated that Col. Henry Watterson, the radical tariff reformer, Chairman of the committee, had been in conference for nearly twenty-four hours with Congressman Scott, of Pennsylvania; Barnum, Morrison, ex-Mayor Cooper, of New York, and others, and that a plan that would in a measure reconcilethe two views had been prepared, but that there was some hitch was evidenced by the fact that the committee sat up till nearly 3 o'clock this morning, came together for a while after break fast and again adjourned.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. Sr. Louis, June 6.-There is not to-day the same brotherly feeling existing between the Tammanyites and the County Democrats as existed upon their arrival here. A coldness has crept out of last night's great parade

Tammany was given the right of line in the political pageant, and the County Democracy refused to walk behind the Wigwam forces. The leaders of the County Democracy issued orders forbidding their followers to parade as an organization. The result was the withdrawal of the County Democracy warriors and the County Democrats who had not heard of the row were roaming all over the heard of the row were rosming all over the city in search of Col. Murphy's white-coated brigade, which was to head their phalanx.

A. W. SULLOWAY, J. HAILEY, New Hampshire, Idaho. The orders were not issued until 7 P. M.

The failure of the County Democrats to turn out in the five-mile parade of the Democrats hosts is the talk of the city. The members of the local committee that arranged the parade foel incensed at the action of the County Democracy. The Tammany Hall braves received an ovation ail along the route. route. Commissiones Croker says that Tammany

Commissiones Croker says that Tammany Hall was given the post of honor in the parade over a month ago. "We did not ask or demand the honor," he said.
Sheriff Grant said: "I was surprised when I heard of the County Democracy's withdrawal from the parade, I think they acted very childish."

Col. Murphy, James J, Kelso and Richard
Col. Murphy, James J, Kelso and Richard

Col. Murphy, James J, Reiso and Richard A. Cumningham, who are the commanders of the County Democracy, say that the St. Louis people have paid more attention to Tanmany Hall than to the County Democracy. They say they have no fault to find with the Wigwamites and did not place much importance to Tammany having the right of the line. The Wigwamites are laughing at this statement.

ment.
It is understood that Col. Murphy would It is understood that Col. Murphy would not allow his legion to parade, and as he hired the County Democracy band, the leaders who wanted the organization to parade had to give in. However, there were only a few of the County Democracy leaders who favored parading behind Panmany Hall.

Col. Murphy and his legion brought two uniformed colored dragoons here. One carried the Murphy banner and the water. One of the dusky gentlemen has been lost, straye of the dusky gentlemen has been lost, strayed or stolen.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LAST EDITION.

It is the impression of some of Col. Murphy's friends that the colored dragoon is now on his way down the Mississippi River. He went from Natchez to New York tem years ago, and the sight of the Mississippi River evidently made him homesick, and he skipped the Murphys.

INDIANA STILL FOR GRAY.

Senator Voorbees Will Present His Name to the Convention.

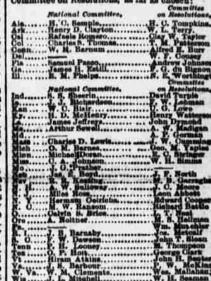

INPECIAL TO THE WORLD, Sr. Louis, June 6.—The Indiana delegates are in session this morning. The corridors around their headquarters at the Lindell Hotel are thronged by the friends of Gov. Gray, the Hoosier candidate for Vice-Presi-

The Indianians say that Senator Voorhees will put Gov. Gray in nomination, though they know he will have no chance against the Thurman tide.

The Indiantans claimed that their champton has gained some strength since yester-day, and are boasting that if Thurman is not nominated on the first ballot Gray or a dark horse will be the choice of the convention.

The Hoosiers are hoping for the nomination of complimentary candidates and are persuading Illinois to nominate Gen. Black. Gen. Stevenson's friends would like to see Stevenson placed in nomination out of com-pliment. The Indianians are good fighters and are now flooding the city with cambric handkerchiefs of gray color.

The New National Committee Here is the new National Committee; also t

DAROTA'S DELEGATES. DAROYA'S DELEGATES.

The Committee on Credentials to-night admitted the contesting delegation from Dakota headed by Gov. Louis K. Church. The fighting Democrats from that Territory washed a good deal of dirty political lines in their argument before the committee. Gov. Church was formerly a member of the New York Legislature from Queena County.

At a late hour the sub-committee is in season and probably will remain in session all night. Not a clause of the platform has set been formally read or discussed by the sub-committee.

SHERIDAN'S COMFORTABLE NIGHT. No Recurrence of the Alarming Symp

Better To-Day. (SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) WASHINGTON, June 6 .- Gen. Sheridan passed a comfortable night. At 8.30 this norning his pulse was 108; respiration 28. There had been no recurrence of alarming

A Beer-Bettler's Novel Method of Sul Adam G. Faist, a German beer-bottler, com-mitted suicide last night by inhaling coal gas through a rubber tube, one end of watch he had fastened to the gas meter in the cellar of his house, 254 East Eighty-fourth street.
His son found him dead, with the rubber tabo still in his mouth at 5 o'clock this morning.
Falst carried on the business of beer-bottling in the cellar, and had no domestic or business trouble, so that his family are at a loss to account for his suickle.

symptoms.

He had been drinking beavily resterday. Burning Lumber at Burlington, Vt. [EFECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, VL., June 6. —There is a eport here that the lumber yards at Burnington are urning, but no particulars have yet been obtained, a the telegraph wires are in trouble. Local News Condensed. John J. Dolan, Secretary of the County Carlos Association, New York, has returned from a visi cuto find.

Tko Quetations.

	Open.	High.	Law.
la Southern	48.54	41136	400
Bur. & Quincy	108%	11234	112
go & Northwest		100	Audis
Mil. & St. Paul Mil. & St. Paul ptd Rock Island & Pacific	104 54	1010	100
Book Jaland & Pacific	106	10657	1061
Lack, & Wostern	128	128	1273
are & Hudson	108	108	107%
er & Rio Grando pfd	4770	4736	#770
nn Va. & Georgia 2d pf	337	22.4	337
in Central Loased Lines		2174	213
ville & Nashville		9064	500
Kris & Western	1414	1414	1434
Erie & Western pfd	42%	4232	4334
uri Pacific	70	70%	69%
ork Central	100	1051	195
& New Engiano	87	210	3579
Lake Kne & Western	777	22/4	78
ern Pacific.	100	Will.	281/
arn Pacific prof	404	5112	60%
no & Western	1536	1536	1632
u Trafscontmental	表数	22%	75%
m Improvement	9376	8779	9824
o Mail.	803/	OAN.	5014
delphia à Reading	1503	15044	155
A west Point Ter	226	22%	22%
outs & San Francisco pfd	6634	6832	8636
Pacific.	18%	19.	18%
Coal & Bron	2034	3076	2019
Pacific	9876	200	9376
all, Di. L. & Phothermoneterman	9834	75%	$5.W
ira Union Tulograph	6152	61%	6152

In answer to causal question, How easy and truttiful to tell it

A cure for the worst indigestion's To take PIERCE'S PUBLISTE  SUMMER HATS, STRAWN DEREYS AND HIGH HATS FROM 20 OKNES TO 35, MCCANN'S, 223 BOWERY, NEAR PRINCE ST.

the nomination.

FFFICHENT CI

port before 8 o'clock to-night.

request was granted.

liver the speech.

vention to order.

now being argued.

Merriweather was shut off.

to make the nominations now.

States for nomination carried.

long resolution on the tariff, demanding that the present tariff. Greeted with applause.

11.84.—The Secretary read a communication from the Washingten Women's Conven-to address the convention for ten minutes.

11.35.-On motion of Bayle, of Pennsyl-sented a resolution of regret on the serious

11.41. - Mrs. Merriweather appeared :

greeted with applause and laughter. Cries

11.44.-Mrs. Merriweather frequently inter-

11.45.—The Chairman finally touched the electric button, the band struck up, and Mrs.

11.46.-A motion was made by Piggott, of Connecticut, to adjourn until 10 A. M. tomorrow. It was amended by Brown, of Tennessee, to read 8 P. M. to-night and is 11.47.—Hensel, of Pennsylvania, has stirred up the convention by offering a resolution

11.51-Hensel's resolution to call roll of 11.52.-Roll call for nominations begun.

11,53.-Alabama gave her place to New York, and the delegates are nearly all on 12.03.-The mention of the vetoes and the reclaiming of public territory bring loud ap-

12.04.-"Public office is a public trust."

12.05. - Cleveland nominated by Dough-

12.08. -The convention is going wild over

12.12.—Cheering for Cleveland continues

erty. The Convention in an uproar.

of " Louder!" from all parts of the hall.

-Tim Campbell, of New York, pre

HONEST GOVE

whome with the qualification of the second

Thirty Minutes of Wild Enthusiasm and Cheers.

Than Her + Husband.

9.35.—The Platform Committee came to no clusion last night, but took a recess from that the platform will be a series of com-referred without reading. 10.17. -Mr. Watterson said this morning illness of Gen. Sheridan. (Applause.) adopted.

on it in the convention.

10.25.—Resolution of thanks to the Colorado delegation for the silver gavel unanimously 16.26.-Rev. J. P. Green, of Missouri, de

Credentials were received from Alaska, and referred, amid laughter, to the Credential their feet cheering. 10. 36.—The Committee on Credentials have setts, and Ingersoll, of Tennessee, announced as permanent Chairman and Secretary re-

Flower, of New York, and O'Day, of Mis-

ing continues. Horns blowing in the gal-

12.21.-A woman's red hat dropped from edvised by the chairman of the Platform the gallery. Delegates are tossing it about

.12.24.—Delegates are returning to their seats with State banners, but the cheering continues. 12.26.—Dougherty has returned to his seat. A flag has been fastened to New York's ban-12.27.-The crowd in the galleries are tear-and waving them. Cheering renewed. The band strikes up "The Star-Spangled Banner." 12.30.—Cheering has continued nearly 12.32. - Delegates have taken seats, but an

12.35.-Renewed but not prolonged cheering at the mention of Cleveland's name by rupted. Chairman obliged to call the Con- McKenzie, but wild enthusiasm at the men-as " Gentlemen of the Jury." (Laughter.)

entine Mosaic from Maine," was greeted nomination be made unanimous. 12.46.-Judge Twiggs, of Georgia, now sec-stirring Scenes in the Exposition Building-

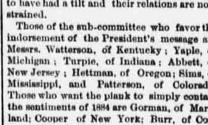

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

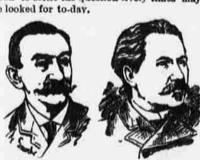

P. A. COLLINS.

the nominator of Cleveland.

Tammany seemed last night to take special pride in the bandanus, and this morning a red handkerchief peeps from every Tammany The question of the Vice-Presidential

In the event of the States being called

PATRICK WALSE,

COUNTY MEN DID NOT PARADE. There Is a Coldness To-Day Between the Two Factions from New York.

of the visiting Democratic legions and clubs.

